Charleston, S. C., Sept. 14.—Ex-Governor Lucius Fairchild, of Wisconsin, con-

With you I have been profoundly touch ed by the great calamity to Charleston and vicinity, caused by the recent earthquake I came as your representative to learn the exact facts as to the necessities of the people and to take such action as the occasion might require. The situation is briefly as follows:

promptly answered by funds already con-tributed, but there is a class of citizens whose houses are more or less shattered and who have no means wherewith to repair them. This class and those who being houseless have nevertheless suffered loss of personal property, require aid from abroad. It will be to them a continued calamity unless help is rendered. The community here have done and on all the summer and sentence with any of the following diseases will consult him first, those will be gained. Honey saved and disappointment averted: New York, September 11.

The community here have done and are doing everything in their power. A large sum of money is required to do all that ought to be done. This condition of affairs warrants immediate and extending the sum of th traordinary effort. I feel confident that every comrade is anxious to do what he can to bring comfort and harminess the confidence of the to bring comfort and happiness to the Stricken people.

I therefore request department commanders to call upon each post in their department to st once appoint a committee who shall collect such sums as their committees who shall collect such sums as the shall Inges and on the farms may design to contribute. They should be transmitted to department headquarters, whence it will be sent to W. A. Courtney, mayor of Charleston. A committee consisting of seven of the best citizens of Charleston will see to it that the money is properly applied to the relief only of the worthy and needy.
